

As the corporate entertainment world deals with the Covid-19 crisis, a new form of entertainment is needed. Corporate clients have begun moving their conferences online, and requests are coming in for entertainment that can be delivered in a “Zoom” or “Facebook Live” or other online video format.

To fill that need, we are seeking talented entertainers of all types to submit a video link (please do not email your actual video file) displaying any new and creative footage that might fill this need.

Here are some guidelines for your submission:

- Overview:
Videos need to show you in a LIVE performance setting (preferably from your home or other more personal setting. Lighting and audio quality matter. The better the quality, the better your chances of success. But remember, it needs to have a “live” feel to it.
- Attire:
Dress as you would for a stage performance - unless your pajamas or workout attire is part of the show. And remember, for corporate work think conservative - no plunging necklines, nothing too revealing please.
- Talent:
  - All types of talent are welcome. Juggling, singing, dancing, contortionist, balancing, painting, magic, spoken word...you name it
  - Individuals, partners, trios, or groups will be considered
  - Be authentic. Successful virtual entertainment allows the viewer to know the person behind the act
- Video:
  - A video of your performance no more than 2 minutes in length
  - Keep it simple - Shoot your video on a device like your iPhone in a bright/well-lit setting
  - Tripods, gimbles, iPhone dolly's or other stabilizers are ok to use
  - Ensure audio can be heard clearly
  - You are welcome to sing with a backing track if we can hear your voice clearly
  - Postproduction on the video if it keeps the genuine quality of the act as if it were performed live
- Restrictions:
  - Videos must be recorded during the COVID-19, shelter in place era or after March 15, 2020
  - Do not use auto-tune apps like Smule or StarMaker or other. We are looking for raw talent.
  - Do not submit a highly edited video, sizzle reel, or video with highly processed vocals.
  - Do not submit videos with special effects that do not directly pertain to the function of the act

PLEASE NOTE: Please be sure to follow all of your local government regulations, if any, relating to the coronavirus disease, Covid-19, when preparing and submitting any audition materials.
